
WAREHOUSE MANAGEMENT ACTIVITIES

CONTENT:

1. USAID's Guidelines for Storage of Essential Health Commodities and Vaccines (Nepali)

USAID Guidelines for Storage of Essential Health Commodities and Vaccines

Store Drugs and commodities in rack, cupboards and palettes.
Store Drugs and commodities in dry and well ventilated space
Store Drugs and commodities raised from ground and not touching the walls
Store Drugs and commodities away from direct sunlight
Store Drugs and commodities away from office equipments, insecticides and chemical.
Prevent Drugs and commodities from dampness and water
Store Condom and rubber items away from electric motors and extremely bright lights.
Available of Fire extinguisher tool in the store
Assure Security (using grills, locks)
Prevent Store from rats and insects
Store Items according to FEFO system
Store The drugs and commodities in carton and racks with properly visible label and expiry date
Separate Damages and expired drugs